STOCK-RAISING IN BULLOCH

The picture you are looking at is an actual incident in Bulloch county stock-raising. The two young horses before you, with their mothers, are the property of Arthur Riggs, successful farmer of the Jimps neighborhood. He is setting an example for them.

FARM TO FARM

(By BYRON DYER, County Agent)

Frank Simmons thinks it is easy for a farmer to have a beautiful lawn around his home as is found in towns.

Cattle have just as prominent place in the farming program as hogs, according to Remer Barnes. Mr. Barnes says that he sells his cattle for more clear cash than any other product marketed annually.

Early corn can be marketed profitably as well as early finished hogs, declares Eddie Lanier, who practices planting early corn in the field and early spring pigs on and thereby gets them on the fall market before the seasonal drop in prices.

If a farmer cares for his hogs as he usually does his cotton, they will give him a higher income than the name land and then the soil will be in better condition at the end of the year, T. E. Deal thinks. Mr. Deal has replaced cotton with hogs.

If the crop of velvet beans found in John Powell's corn field is any indication of the value of velvet on land during the winter, it would pay all farmers to plant their intended corn acreage in velvet. The increase in corn yield plus the unusually good beans will give Mr. Powell double profits from his winter crop of velvet.

Three Club Members Visit Camp Wilkins

Bulloch county 4-H club boys are permitted to have three representatives at the state leadership conference held at Camp Wilkins, Athens, from August 9 to 14.

Bulloch's two representatives, the number permitted for each county in the state, are John W. Davis from Stilson, and William Moore from West Side. P. W. Clifton Jr., awarded a trip to the conference by G. V. Cunningham, state 4-H club leader, for his activities at the conference in 1936 and for his outstanding work as a clubber.

These club boys are at the College of Agriculture during the farm and home week. However, their program does not permit them to take a large part in the farmers' program.

The theme of the club conference is "Life Planning."

Middleground Club

The Middleground Community Club will meet at the school auditorium Tuesday, August 17, with Mrs. Amos Atkins and Mrs. Pete Cannon hosts. Miss Susan Mathews, extension nutritionist, will be guest speaker.

JOE S. CRUMBLY

Joe S. Crumbly, aged 78 years, died Saturday at the local hospital after a confinement there of several days. Interment was at Upper Mill Creek church cemetery Monday morning at 10 o'clock following services at the home near Statesboro.

Besides his widow, Crumbly is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Riley M. Mard. A son, Raymond Crumbly, died several years ago, and several of his children survive. Also a number of nieces and nephews, children of a brother, John Crumbly, survive.

Mr. Crumbly was a native of Wilkeson county, though he had lived in Bulloch for the past half century. He had long been recognized as an outstanding farmer, and was for years employed as overseer for the large operation of the Adabelle Trading Company, with supervision over more than a hundred pieces. He was an honorable and upright citizen with a wide circle of friends.

NEWS OF THE WEEK OVER THE NATION

Happenings That Affect Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of People

"Business as usual" describes the commercial picture today. During recent weeks, there have been no remarkable changes either upward or downward. The high level attained during the summer, when seasonal adjustments are made.

To quote Business Week, "Business has been steadily improved now. The president's court bill has been a trimming. Though all is not exactly quiet on the labor front, it is definitely better than it was." Another encouraging factor, in the view of business men, is congress' apparent reluctance to okay major "experimentation" legislation. It now seems probable that adjustment will take place within two weeks.

As this column has remarked before, the noticeable upturn in optimism on the part of business men is one of the most important of recent developments. Last year, for instance, and early this year, many leaders were frankly skeptical of the basic soundness of the recovery movement—they regarded it as a boom bubble that might burst at any time. They still don't feel that underlying structure is as solid as it might be—but they are definitely more hopeful that needed corrections will take place.

Here are some business briefs of interest:

Agriculture: Big crops are being harvested and prices are good. There is an acute shortage of farm labor in many states, even though wages have risen materially. This is due to the fact that the farm labor supply-demand ratio was the lowest since late 1923.

Automobiles: The June passenger car registrations totaled 356,000, as against 360,000 in June, 1936, and 280,000 in June, 1935. These sales are tending to slacken. This is to be expected, in the light of the remarkable demand for new cars the public has shown during the farm and home week. However, their program does not permit them to take a large part in the farmers' program.

The theme of the club conference is "Life Planning."

HAGAN DECLARES "SMART TO DRINK"

Restaurant President Prescribes Cocktail as Aid to "Temperance and Health"

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 9.—A battle over cocktails broke today in Georgia, where prohibition forces for a generation have fought off legislation of whiskey.

Reverend Commissioner T. G. Head touched off the controversy with a ruling that bottled cocktails and highballs of wine have and of less than 22 per cent alcoholic content are taxable under state laws which legalize wines up to their percentage.

Tap-rooms, restaurants and restaurants seized upon the opinion as meaning any cocktail or highball is legal in Georgia as long as it contains less than 22 per cent in alcohol.

The first barb was hurled at the new "cocktail-highball" interpretation by Mrs. Mary Harris Armour, 74-year-old Woman's Christian Temperance Union leader.

"I think the wetts have over-reached themselves," she said. "Twenty-one per cent liquor is hard liquor, and we are going to put on the biggest fight of our lives against it. One of these twenty-one per cent cocktails would make a potential murderer of any man or woman who gets under the wheel of an automobile."

Explaining she spoke as an individual, she asserted:

"I think it will mean the return of the bone dry law to Georgia."

On the opposite side of the question was Hagan, restaurant company president, who issued a printed "cocktail and mixed drink" list bearing this notation: "It's smart to drink cocktails and mixed drinks. It promotes temperance and good health."

"It's unquestionably better for a diner-out to sip a mild and properly made cocktail or highball," he said, "than to gulp a surreptitious drink of raw whiskey from a hidden bottle."

NOTICE

This is to advise that the sheriff's office has instructions to immediately collect all past due taxes in execution for state, county and schools. The authorities have been slow to force collection of taxes in the past few years owing to financial conditions, but now with better times these taxes must be collected and the state has instructions to make levies immediately in all cases where settlements are not made in full. Please act at once and pay additional taxes before the Board of Commissioners, BULLOCK COUNTY, GEORGIA. (22July)

The Housewife . . . "Research Professor of Economy"

SHE'S not a Ph. D. or an LL. D. She hasn't a diploma or a cap and gown. Her research is not done in the laboratory or the library. As a matter of fact, her findings are made usually in the quiet of her home.

She reads the advertisements in the paper with care and consideration. They form her research data. By means of them she makes her purchases so that she well deserves the title of "Research Professor of Economy." She discovers item after item, as the year rolls on, combining high quality with low.

It is clear to you at once that you—and all who make and keep a home—have the same opportunity. With the help of newspaper advertising you, too, can graduate from the school of indiscriminate buying into the faculty of fastidious purchases!

The Times circulation is strictly among those who have subscribed and receive the paper regularly. Almost entirely they are the people who are living within Statesboro's retail trade zone—regular visitors to our local stores. If you have a story about merchandise worth telling—and which you want the people of Bulloch county to know—give us your advertisement.

Will be glad to PROVE our circulation.

In the District Court of the United States for the Middle District of Georgia, Valdosta Division.

C. R. Townsend et al vs. M. J. Yeomans, Attorney General, et al—No. 88 in Equity.

In this case certain tobacco warehouseman procured a temporary injunction against the enforcement of the Georgia statute limiting the amount they could charge for handling and selling tobacco. This injunction was conditioned upon the warehouseman depositing in court an amount equal to the charges collected by them during 1935 and 1936, in excess of those fixed by the statute. A final judgment has declared the statute valid, terminated the injunction and the warehouseman's funds so deposited, less proper costs and expenses, refunded to the persons from whom the excess charges were collected. The undersigned special master has been appointed by the court and directed to ascertain and report to the court the names and addresses of the persons entitled to these funds and the gross amount due each of them, with a list of the persons contributing the funds. Notice of the procedure adopted to do this will be given by advertisement, and the distribution will be made as soon as possible.

By an order dated July 14, 1937, the court further directed me to give notice that it has fixed and ordered paid out of said funds the following expenses incurred in protecting the interests of the tobacco growers, to-wit: Lee W. Branch $667.38, W. D. Dickerson $380.00, State of Georgia $804.70, and J. H. Swindle $500.00. And the court has allowed and ordered paid to the attorneys who appeared as defendants a fee of fifteen per cent of the net amount remaining on hand after paying other costs and expenses.

Said order provides that any party at interest may make formal written objections, if any they have, to said order, or the expenses so ordered, by filing such objections with the clerk of the court, within ten days from the first publication of this notice. Any such objections will be heard by the court at a time and place to be hereafter fixed by it.

This August 3, 1937.

.. Nobody's Business ..

(By GEE McGEE, Anderson, S. C.)

GOOD NEWS FROM FLAT ROCK flat rock hell its annual all-day sing at reboiler church last Sunday and nearly everybody except the loaves from cedar lane fetched well-filled baskets and et on the ground. They generally eat with anybody who asks them, but they almost got disappointed this time.

miss Jennie veeve smith played the organ as usual, and also joined in the singing when the altoes on the rostrum got weak. She has a very sweet voice never to be heard abroad to get teased; she can sing in 3 notes enduring one tone, viz: alto, soprano, and contralto.

one of the attractive features of this singing convention was the fine violin music which was rendered by yore corky spondent's fifth daughter, Julie Lark. She can play some whole songs on only 2 strings, and gets along pretty with them with only 1, not long ago, 3 or 4 of her finger broke, and nobody ever found it out till she told them afterwards.

songsters from far and nigh were on hands to help with this great celebration. Some of them could sing, and some of them could not, but all of them thought they were carrying out several voices should of been ruled out of the flat-form; they did not use the same keys that all of the others were using, and the leader called it discordant.

mr. dud simkins, the famous county-seat quire leader, got a fish bone hung in his throat enduring the dinner hour and carrying out his part of the program. His sonorous voice was badly missed; many persons had drove from 5 to 6 miles just to hear him. He showed his throat thru his nose, but the fish bone wouldn't let him even do them.

everything passed off mighty fine at this convention except somebody stole 2 spars of fire, 3 junks and 5 inner tubes while the festivities were in progress, and punkin head, tom head's second son, says he saw some fellers from sandy flats take a all in some trees on the outskirts of the crowd, but they were never ketched.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM FLAT ROCK

the marriage ceremony which was to have been held in reboiler church last Saturday p. m. was called off indefinitely on account of the groom not showing up after a wait of 3 hours. watch this column for future developments.

the serious wreck on the main highway between flat rock and cedar lane was caused by too much booze, so says the police. A car driven by the body of the stranger, a quart was found outside of his remains. He did not break when his car was contacted, but truck in the rear.

rev. will wait, our local pasture, had a lot of cattle, and he was glad to give some, as the congregation needed a vacation worse than he did. He has precher on nothing but sin for nearly 4 months, and all of his members seem to be gotten tired of hearing of such trivial matters.

miss Jennie veeve smith, our affliction, who has been going out on a second summer outing, she selected the sea coast this time and took her bathing suit with her. she has a lot of friends who live on the beach and she thinks she can stay with him a week for nothing and be considered a visitor. her suit was in the light of a former owner that she has gained 44 pounds since she bought it in 1933. she will try to diet herself this fall, so she says.

a fight ensued between the collector for the county seat, who was carrying of the county-seat and hansom from flat rock (who looked like he was going to ride while he didn't get away), and the collector, who was carrying of the county-seat and hansom from flat rock (who looked like he was going to ride while he didn't get away).

DOG NEWS FROM FLAT ROCK the town of flat rock is torn asunder on account of the new dog license law. The new law passed by the council at its first session in June, this new act requires all dog owners to wear license plates on their collars, but they almost got disappointed this time.

they are further required to fetch their dogs to the town hall and be vaccinated by the vet-ter-nary surgeon who will be there from the county-seat every Friday and Saturday at 13 for each dog, him to furnish the virus, or if the dog owner furnishes it, provided it bears a government guarantee, then the vet-ter-nary will charge only 75 for his squirt gun use.

this is a very important edict, according to our mayor, our children should be vaccinated by the vet-ter-nary surgeon who will be there from the county-seat every Friday and Saturday at 13 for each dog, him to furnish the virus, or if the dog owner furnishes it, provided it bears a government guarantee, then the vet-ter-nary will charge only 75 for his squirt gun use.

our polearm shot at a tagless dog last week and killed a calf between the ears. The dog was running on the main street. The officer of the law first decided that it was a case of self-defense, or rather—an accident, but rather than be took to law by her owner, he paid for her (23) and dressed her while she was still hot and sold her to the sandy flats market for 45, thus clearing 25 on his shot. His square now believes he shot her on a purpose.

only 2 hydrat-phobes have passed through flat rock this summer. one was then his pet domestic animal, and snapped at 2 winners who were walking down the street with shorts on. The hydrat-phobes who can play, play a few rounds, the said dogs do not know how to play them, but they are not afraid of the dogs, the dogs do not know how to play them, but they are not afraid of the dogs, the dogs do not know how to play them, but they are not afraid of the dogs.

this is the last notice for dog licenses will be shot on sight. in other words, no collar with license, no dog rights in flat rock. the town needs the money, so fetch yore dogs in for the license and for being vaccinated. this is the fourth time that the time has been set for the dog license, but this is positively the final chance. it means either a license, a bullet or the law.

yores true, mike Lark, rd. town treasure.
